8. Any challenge to this Order must be made in the High Court by an interested person within six weeks of it being made. An interested person is someone who lives in, regularly work in, or visits the restricted area. This means that only those who are directly affected by the restrictions have the power to challenge. The right to challenge also exists where an Order is varied by the Council.

Interested persons can challenge the validity of this order on two grounds:

- 1) that the Council did not have power to make the order, or to include particular prohibitions or requirements;
- 2) or that one of the requirements of the legislation, for instance consultation, has not been complied with.
