Agenda Item 4

LICENSING SUB-COMMITTEE HEARINGS PROCEDURE SUMMARY	Tick box to record action / decisi on
INTRODUCTION
1. The Chair introduces himself and invites other Members, Council officers, Police, Applicant and Objectors to do the same.
2. The Chair invites Members to disclose any prior contacts (before the hearing) with the parties or representations received by them
3. The Chair explains the procedure to be followed by reference to this summary which will be distributed.
NON-ATTENDANCE BY PARTY OR PARTIES
4. If one or both of the parties fails to attend, the Chair decides whether to: (i) grant an adjournment to another date, or
(ii) proceed in the absence of the non-attending party.
Normally, an absent party will be given one further chance to attend.
TOPIC HEADINGS
5. The Chair suggests the "topic headings" for the hearing. In the case of the majority of applications for variation of hours, or other terms and conditions, the main topic is: Whether the extensions of hours etc. applied for would conflict with the four licensing objectives i.e.
(i) the prevention of crime and disorder,
(ii) public safety,

(iii) the prevention of public nuisance, and
(iv) the protection of children from harm.
6. The Chair invites comments from the parties on the suggested topic headings and decides whether to confirm or vary them.
WITNESSES
7. The Chair asks whether there are any requests by a party to call a witness and decides any such request.
8. Only if a witness is to be called, the Chair then asks if there is a request by an opposing party to “cross-examine” the witness. The Chair then decides any such request.
DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE
9. The Chair asks whether there are any requests by any party to introduce late documentary evidence.
10. If so, the Chair will ask the other party if they object to the admission of the late documents.
11. If the other party do object to late admission, the following criteria shall be taken into account when the Chair decides whether or not to admit the late documents:
(i) What is the reason for the documents being late?
(ii) Will the other party be unfairly taken by surprise by the late documents?
(iii) Will the party seeking to admit late documents be put at a major disadvantage if admission of the documents is refused?
(iv) Is the late evidence really important?
(v) Would it be better and fairer to adjourn to a later date?
THE LICENSING OFFICER'S INTRODUCTION
12. The Licensing Officer introduces the report explaining, for example, the existing hours, the hours applied for and

the comments of the other Council Services or outside official bodies. This should be as “neutral” as possible between the parties.
13. The Licensing Officer can be questioned by Members and then by the parties.
THE HEARING
14. This takes the form of a discussion led by the Chair. The Chair can vary the order as appropriate but it should include:
(i) an introduction by the Objectors' main representative
(ii) an introduction by the Applicant or representative
(iii) questions put by Members to the Objectors
(iv) questions put by Members to the Applicant
(v) questions put by the Objectors to the Applicant
(vi) questions put by the Applicant to the Objectors
CLOSING ADRESSES
15. The Chair asks each party how much time is needed for their closing address, if they need to make one.
16. Generally, the Objectors make their closing address before the Applicant who has the right to the final closing address.
THE DECISION
17. Members retire with the Committee Clerk and legal representative

to consider their decision including the imposition of conditions. The decision is put in writing and Members return to the meeting.
18. The Chair should read out the following statement before asking the Committee Clerk to read out in public a summary of the Committee's Decision: “The Committee Clerk will read out a summary of the Committee’s Decision. The Parties will receive a written Decision Notice in which the Decision will be formally set out. Please note that the written Decision will be substantially the same although the wording might vary slightly from the summary read out.”

OPERATING SCHEDULE

PART I - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE PREMISES

THE BUILDING

Summary

The Red Hedgehog at 255-257 Archway Road, Highgate, N6 5BS is a small arts centre comprising two premises knocked into one. The combined site has approximately 1300 square feet of public space, plus additional areas for facilities which include two unisex toilets and a third wheelchair accessible toilet, a small café counter area, a bar area and serving hatch and a separate kitchen area running off the bar. The kitchen has an extraction ducting system fitted approved by Haringey Council Planning Department.

Layout

The layout of the premises comprises a front area approximately 28 feet wide by 24 feet long. The front area of 257 raises 20" up two steps to a passageway with a middle area of functional space running off it of approximately 12 feet by 11 feet. At the rear of 257 there is a separate enclosed room of approximately 23 feet long by 13-15 feet wide, with a raised platform ('stage' 0 20" in height) running across the entire width of the room two thirds down its length. The platform has been installed to cover and make safe a high, unevenly shaped concrete platform containing a manhole to the main drains and a narrow ledge running from it which went around the top half of the room (probably structural in purpose) – both of which were hazardous. A set of steps has been installed as access to the stage and a (removable) banister rail is yet to be installed at the edge of the platform stage.

At the rear of 257 there is a garden area leading into a wide pathway (originally an asphalt lane) which runs behind the parade, ending at open grassland on the corner area between Southwood Avenue and Archway Road.

Sound Proofing

The combined premises has been comprehensively soundproofed.

(a) The main door to each side of the venue opens into an internal porch, where a second internal fire door is fitted to give access. Each porch gives considerable soundproofing to the venue, both in terms of traffic noise coming into the premises and any internal noise emitting into the street.

(b) The two shop front glass windows have each been installed with heavy double-glazed window units, with a 20 inch vacuum between the glazed units and the shop front plate glass. The vacuum and the secondary glazed units together serve to eliminate all car noise from being heard within the venue. It is equally not possible to hear any sound being emitted from the venue from the pavement outside.

(c) The front area in 255 was handed over by the freeholder with sound-deadening boards installed on the ceiling and the party wall to the stairs going to the flat above. In addition, two suspended ceilings have since been installed, both with 150 thick rockwool and two skins of plasterboard. The existing ceiling of 257 was already at a distance of 40 cms from the ceiling underneath the joist of the premises above. A second suspended ceiling has been installed below that, with 150 thick rockwool above. The party wall between the front area of 157 and the stairs going to the flats above has been clad with 100 thick rockwool with two skins of half-hour plasterboard.

The rear room of 257 has also been installed with a suspended ceiling insulated with rockwool. This area has thick outside brick walls which provides efficient soundproofing.

The venue has by now held various small musical performances on temporary events notices with a range of instrumental groupings including piano recitals on the venue's Yamaha C7 concert grand piano, a professional, powerful concert platform instrument which emits some noise when played at capacity volume – and violins, which have a penetrating sound. Following each event upstairs neighbours were queried as to noise levels but no performance sound or noise from audience has been discernible from the residential parts above or from either side of the premises.

Provision for Disability

The premises is wheelchair accessible from the street using a Portaramp system. Once inside, there is a further slight gradient from the front area into the bar area, from which a fully disabled access toilet is available. The toilet has a specialist disabled lavatory installed with correctly situated grab bars and sink at the correct height. A panic alarm is also installed, suitably situated.

At present the main performance area of the venue, as well as the café, bar area and disabled access toilet, is accessible but the raised middle room and the rear room are not. An additional internal ramp will be installed as soon as possible when budget permits to provide access from the front area to the remaining middle and back areas. Once this further access is available, were an evacuation from fire to prove necessary from the rear fire exit, staff will be trained in the efficient execution of a clearly stated and rehearsed Management Policy to assist any wheelchair user up two steps onto the platform and out through the rear fire exit. At a later stage when budget permits a third Portaramp will be purchased which can be speedily placed into position so as to allow independent exit from the rear by wheelchair users.

Door handles and locks have been chosen suitable for customers with grip difficulties.

Air Conditioning

There is air conditioning installed throughout the venue, with a unit in each of linked front rooms and in the separate rear area.

SECTION II

THE RED HEDGEHOG PROGRAMMING AND ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Concept

The concept for The Red Hedgehog is an intimate venue for local people offering professional arts and social events. Works for sale by North London professional working artists will be presented on the café walls, alongside a classical music programme of exceptionally high quality, plus a variety of small performances of poetry, words and music, theatre cabaret, acoustic jazz, theatre and social events. Vegetarian food and a range of juices and soft drinks will be served, and there is a small separate bar area.

During the day the venue will function as a café/gallery space in each of the public spaces, showing artworks for sale, with a small range of other retail goods such as greetings cards and CDs. There will be occasional small performances during the daytime. In the evenings it is envisaged that all events will be ticketed and the café/bar available only to those attending the particular event.

It is not intended that the venue will trade as a pub.

The Name

The venue name The Red Hedgehog is inspired by a 19th century coffee house in Vienna, the regular haunt of many classical composers of the day (Brahms, Schubert, Schumann, Mendelssohn etc.) Currently the name carries a dual meaning, one the historic source and a second connotation the idea that the 'hedgehog' is now 'red' because of global warming.

Vision and Purpose

The purpose of the venue is fourfold-

A Arts - to offer a high-quality, cutting-edge arts programme, with the main focus on contemporary fine art and a top-class programme of classical chamber music as well as other small performance events with highly-regarded performers.

B Environmental Awareness - to support increased public awareness of the threatening onset of climate change through a range of initiatives promoted alongside the high-profile arts programme, one of which is the venue's unique Green Discount Scheme, which encourages local audiences to use environmentally friendly methods of transport (public transport, low emissions vehicles, bicycles or on foot) with discounts on all ticketed events as well as food and drink when a Green Discount Membership Card is produced. The objective is to gain significant media publicity for the Green Discount scheme and thus encourage similar schemes throughout all London venues and eventually, it is hoped, for this policy to become the standard across the UK.

A second key objective of the Green Discount is to point up the appalling environmental devastation caused by aviation and to encourage a range of more environmentally-friendly recreational and vocational pursuits through a scheme which will offer a Red Hedgehog Approved status in partnership with other organisations.

The aim of these strategies is to maintain a constant hum of up to date information about the environmental time-bomb with positive, community-sharing ideas on how to make the necessary changes without altogether compromising lifestyle choices.

In support of these aims the venue will provide a wall-mounted flat-screen monitor with an off-line website containing up to date information on current environmental issues, with links to various other key sites.

A further initiative to aid awareness will be a range of artistically produced cards on café tables in collectable series, to contain punchy snippets of key information on climate change as well as current strategies to combat and reduce its impact. The cards will include images from cultural history around the world, paintings and artefacts, quotes from literature, philosophy, science, spiritual disciplines, poetry, Shakespeare, etc. The cards will be produced in collectible series, personally signed wherever possible by celebrities, key figures, or scientists, and are intended to demonstrate the phenomenal progress of mankind and what will be lost if global warming is not challenged and the human species becomes extinct.

The essential message of The Red Hedgehog project is that change starts locally and that it is the responsibility of each of us to take individual action now, before it is too late.. Action cannot be left to governments, because vested capitalist, consumerist and corporate interests will inevitably be self-serving. The message that individual people can and must decide on the future of the planet and the human race will be highly positive, life-affirming and supportive, rather than recriminatory and prohibitive.

The Red Hedgehog, with its high-profile arts programme and clearly stated environmental objectives, will be a focal point for local people to encourage clarity of thought on this most vital of issues and responsiveness to ideas of lifestyle change. It is hoped that the venue concept will be adopted elsewhere, that the idea of change starting locally and expanding outwards will be inspirational and that saving the future of life on earth will be considered not only 'desirable' but increasingly possible.

It is hoped the quality of the arts programme at the The Red Hedgehog, specifically its high-ranking classical music programme, which can be placed alongside venues such as the famous Wigmore Hall and the South Bank programme, will mark it out as an important new chamber music venue in London, thus adding weight and legitimacy to its environmental activism,

C Local Audiences

To combine the two key aims above the arts and events programme will be energetically targeted mainly (although not exclusively) at the immediate local communities of Highgate and Highgate Village, Archway, Crouch End and Muswell Hill and then outwards to Hendon, East Finchley, Kentish Town so as to create and maintain a strong, returning North London audience base. The Red Hedgehog programme will publicly support local business and social networks, local shops, local entertainment, local solutions and new transport initiatives. It has campaigning ambitions only for the immediate area because a return from fragmented communities to smaller local communities with a kind of information-sharing “village pump” mentality seems long overdue.

D Venue ‘style’ and ambience

A more subtle aim of the venue is to create an ambience of friendship, warmth and community feel within the venue with vegetarian food and space freely available for the practice of early morning meditation, Tai Chi and Pilates. The Red Hedgehog will be an environment which mitigates somewhat against the anonymous, intense consumerist and ‘corporate ethic’ styling of much of contemporary life, with customers treated as people first and customers second – in a return to a sort of ‘1970s alternative culture’. Naturally the business must make sufficient profits to survive, but the ‘behind the scenes’ objective of the venue is to create a relaxed environment to draw customers into a slightly different way of thinking, specifically a sense of community and shared values. In this context excessive drinking or rowdiness will be totally out of place within the venue. Management and staff will be working to create an artistic atmosphere of calm and generous open-mindedness.

SECTION III

THE RED HEDGEHOG ARTS PROGRAMME

A Fine Art – paintings and prints for sale

Exhibitions of prints, paintings and photographs by established working artists, with a bias towards those based in North London.

B Top class chamber music

The venue owns a top quality grand piano and the main focus of the programme will be as a classical chamber music venue presenting musicians of the highest calibre from both Europe and abroad. Many of the musicians agreeing to perform at the venue have leading UK and European reputations and some are world famous.

C Jazz, Theatre Cabaret, Poetry Readings, Words & Music etc ...

Alongside chamber music, other small performance events will be programmed but only as and when excellent performers are available. The programming policy is always excellence over regularity, to avoid risking a loss of reputation by being forced to programme indifferent performers when faced with a 'slot to fill'.

D Specialist events for the older gay and cross-dressing community

“Pink Hedgehog”

The concept is to offer a weekly arts and club event on a Thursday evening, starting at 8pm, as a cultured alternative to the pubs and clubs, disco and drag scene which is all that is currently available for the older gay man in London (who tend to disappear from the 'scene' as they move into middle-age. Quality arts events will be offered as a ticketed event (eg chamber music, jazz pianists, theatre cabaret) or a Private View, followed by a quiet private club.

“The Lilac Club”

Likewise, the only provision offered for the huge but invisible transvestite subculture in London is the routine pubs and clubs, and disco scene. The same format will apply here, i.e. offering an evening arts event which the cross-dressed male can attend, and then stay 'dressed' in a relaxed club setting.

These events will be ticketed and sold in advance. The venue will not operate as a drop-in bar and club. The concept is to create a 'private members club' feel, relaxed and sophisticated in style.

E Early Morning exercises

The venue will be open for early morning yoga, pilates, tai chi and meditation from 7am. (Free to public)

F Venue hire for corporate events and private receptions

The Red Hedgehog hopes to increase turnover through focusing mainly on private party hire and corporate events during December and January. The venue will routinely close during the month of August for its annual break, although any private wedding receptions will be programmed into the space during this period whenever possible.

Testing the Product

Earlier this year The Red Hedgehog 'tested the market' for its main product (the Chamber Music programme) in a brief series of one-off concert events over a three month period, making adjustments to soundproofing, seating arrangements and other practical alterations as the mini-season progressed. The purpose was to see if the concept was viable in terms of professional musicians wishing to perform in this unusually intimate venue, to see if the acoustic worked, to see if the soundproofing worked in terms of upstairs residents and if the traffic noise would seep into the performance – and finally whether the audience would be repelled or would accept the idea of walking off the pavement on the busy A1 straight into a 'mini concert hall' space.

Fortunately, the concept proved successful in every respect – the audience response has been overwhelmingly warm and positive, with much support and good wishes expressed on each occasion and especially since the vegetarian café opened on 24 June. The few concerts attracted an instant returning audience, with some people coming to each event. The venue has a mailing list already of some several hundred from those initial tiny audiences and immediate 'word of mouth'. It is therefore with some measure of confidence in the viability of the concept for this exciting project that a full premises license is now being applied for. We do not anticipate any objections to this application by local people, and hope the licensing team will likewise appreciate and support the aims and objectives of The Red Hedgehog.

PART D

FULFILLING THE LICENSING OBJECTIVES

(a) General

The Red Hedgehog will take all necessary steps to maintain a well-managed environment with strict controls in place to implement the licensing objectives.

- * At least one main member of staff will be hired who already holds a current Personal Licence
- * Key members of staff who do not hold a current license will be offered formal training by a licensing authority.
- * Before starting casual or full-time employment behind the bar or in the café, all staff will receive a comprehensive training session and test on licensing objectives, using information from the National Certificate for Personal Licence Holders.
- * Following such training, those staff members who do not hold a current Personal License will be formally authorised to sell alcohol by a member of staff who does hold a Personal License.
- * Key information from the National Certificate for Personal Licence Holders will be collated and available at all times in a separate folder in the bar area, for easy reference.
- * The venue will maintain a DAY BOOK where any incidents of note can be logged.
- * Any matters arising from the DAY BOOK relating to correct procedures with regard to licensing objectives will be subsequently raised and discussed at weekly staff meetings.
- * All members of staff will be advised of their duty strictly to adhere to lawful practices with regard to licensing and any dereliction of duty in this regard will result in an immediate verbal warning and further dismissal procedures should other misdemeanours occur, or instant dismissal when such staff are not on contract.

(b) Prevention of crime and disorder

The Red Hedgehog will not be marketed to a club-style audience so that excessive use of alcohol or use of drugs, it is hoped, would be an extremely rare occurrence and relatively easy to deal with. At events where there may be a younger audience – such as a salsa event, for example, or a private party hire, a notice will be clearly displayed at the entrance and in the toilets warning of the management policy of ‘zero tolerance’ towards drunkenness or any evidence of drug-taking and that such behaviour will result in the guilty party being evicted from the premises and permanently banned thereafter from use of the venue, with no rights of appeal.

During the day, customers will be expected to buy food with their drink orders, although a light use of alcohol, such as a single glass of wine or bottle beer, will be acceptable. Attempts to use the venue merely for the consumption of alcohol during the day will be frowned upon and such customers advised that the venue is primarily a vegetarian café and it would be preferable for them to use a local pub, or buy a meal with their drink.

Alcohol sales during the evening will almost always be linked to events, and consumption naturally staggered towards pre and post performance times and intervals. When the event is presented 'club-style' with tables and chairs, such as for jazz performances, where customers can visit the bar at any point during the performance, staff will be specifically reminded of their statutory duty of care towards fulfilling licensing objectives with regard to excessive drinking.

The café will remain open for sales of vegetarian food, cakes and snacks, hot and cold drinks, milkshakes, smoothies and juices alongside the bar and these sales will be actively promoted as an alternative to alcohol.

In a perhaps more significant initiative against over-consumption, The Red Hedgehog will display available drinks by size and by UNIT so that customers become accurately aware as they drink of how many units they are consuming and how this translates in terms of a healthy daily allowance. If a customer is becoming inebriated but still trying to buy more alcohol, they will not merely be told in standard vague terms that they have "had enough now" and be refused service, but will routinely first be asked how many units they have consumed' so that the customer is aware of exactly why they are being refused further alcohol or, in extreme cases, being asked to leave the premises. The customer may not know or wish to know their unit count, but the question will be implemented as standard procedure with the venue actively promoting the practice as a fun, informative and sensible way of managing alcohol with restraint. Along with the Green Discount scheme, it is a further objective of the The Red Hedgehog that selling alcohol by UNITS becomes normal practise in pubs and bars across the UK.

The Red Hedgehog will implement the following specific bar policy:

- * no bar targets for staff to fulfil
- * staff who are accustomed to aggressive bar selling will be advised of management policy and if such practices are nonetheless shown to be occurring, staff will be reminded and monitored
- * no 'happy hour' promotions

- * no 'two for one' promotions
- * staff will be trained not to suggest doubles where a customer has not done so
- * staff will be trained to serve standard measure glasses of wine unless a large glass of wine has been specifically requested
- * cocktails will be served in separate glasses with straws rather than tankards
- * vertical drinking at the bar will not be allowed
- * customers appearing to be drinking heavily will be monitored and prevented from over-consumption by being refused service from the premises
- * customers who attempts to buy drinks for companions who appear to be drinking heavily will be similarly refused service
- * glasses of water will be freely available on request (at no charge)
- * as policy, the venue will no longer serve doubles or large cocktails one hour before closing time,
- * drinking up time will be 30 minutes before the venue closes.

(c) Public Safety

Fire Prevention and Escape

A one-hour fire door exit is positioned at the garden end of the back room at 257 leading onto the garden area, access to which is from the raised platform stage. The doors are installed with an emergency crash bar system. Mr Isaac Pels, freeholder of the plot of land at the bottom of the lane as described above, has plans to develop his corner plot into housing or flats, but continues to be agreeable to leaving an area of open grassland free from any planned building erection so as to provide emergency fire access for the venue from the lane.

The venue is installed with a double skin of half-hour fire resisting plasterboard throughout between ceilings and party walls and one skin of half-hour fire resisting plasterboard on solid brick walls.

There are both recessed spotlights and externally mounted spotlights installed to the ceiling of 255 and the front areas of 257. Where recessed spotlights have been installed, firebags have been fitted inside the ceiling to contain each transformer and prevent against overheating and fire.

All electrical works have been carried out by qualified electricians with appropriate certification.

Fire extinguishers have been installed in three different areas in the public areas of the venue and a further fire extinguisher and fire blanket installed in the kitchen. An exit strategy in the event of fire has been prepared and staff trained in its efficient execution.

An emergency lighting system has been installed with separate lights fitted to all areas.

Glass

At events where there is likely to be a capacity crowd, plastic glasses will be used, in order to avoid glass breakage with the attendant risk of cuts.

First Aid

A first aid box will be available in the bar area and staff trained in correct procedures. A day bed will be provided in the staff room should any member of staff or the public fall ill.

(d) Prevention of public nuisance

* During evening events, whatever the hour of closing, patrons will be requested to be quiet upon leaving the premises. If rowdy behaviour were to occur in the street outside the venue or nearby, Management would politely intervene to remind the customers of courteous behaviour with regard to local residents who may be asleep. Management will monitor the leaving behaviour of patrons, specifically younger people.

* It will be management policy to check with all patrons how they intend to get home. Mini-cabs or taxis will be routinely ordered by staff on behalf of customers as a standard service at all evening events. Discreet, courteous monitoring of customers who state they have transport already arranged will be management policy, especially where young women are concerned. Legally licensed mini-cab firms will be used by the venue. Customers will be actively discouraged from leaving the venue without such safe transport arranged.

* There is a parking bay directly outside the venue. In the evening, mini-cab drivers will be requested not to slam their car doors and advised that Management will not use the cab company again unless they strictly adhere to this request.

* Customers will be asked to wait inside the premises until such a time as their cab driver enters the venue to ask for their passenger(s). Management will check that young women in particular get into the mini-cab that has arrived to take them to their destination.

* Were any arguments or disputes to arise inside the venue, for whatever reason, whether the customers have been drinking or not, the participants will be separated into different areas of the venue and in the event of serious disturbance, police will immediately be called. The customers will be quietened down before being allowed to leave the venue and cause possible annoyance in the neighbourhood. Customers who engage in difficult or aggressive behaviour, even when no alcohol has been consumed, will be warned that they are likely to be barred from using the venue again unless they modify their behaviour immediately.

* One of the benefits of the Green Discount scheme in terms of controlling public order is that purchases will be rung into the cash register against Green Discount membership cards. No-one will get a Green Discount unless their name and address is registered on the system. Green Discount cards will be forfeited in the event of any serious contravention of courteous, responsible behaviour and the customer permanently barred on a 'first-strike and you're out' basis.

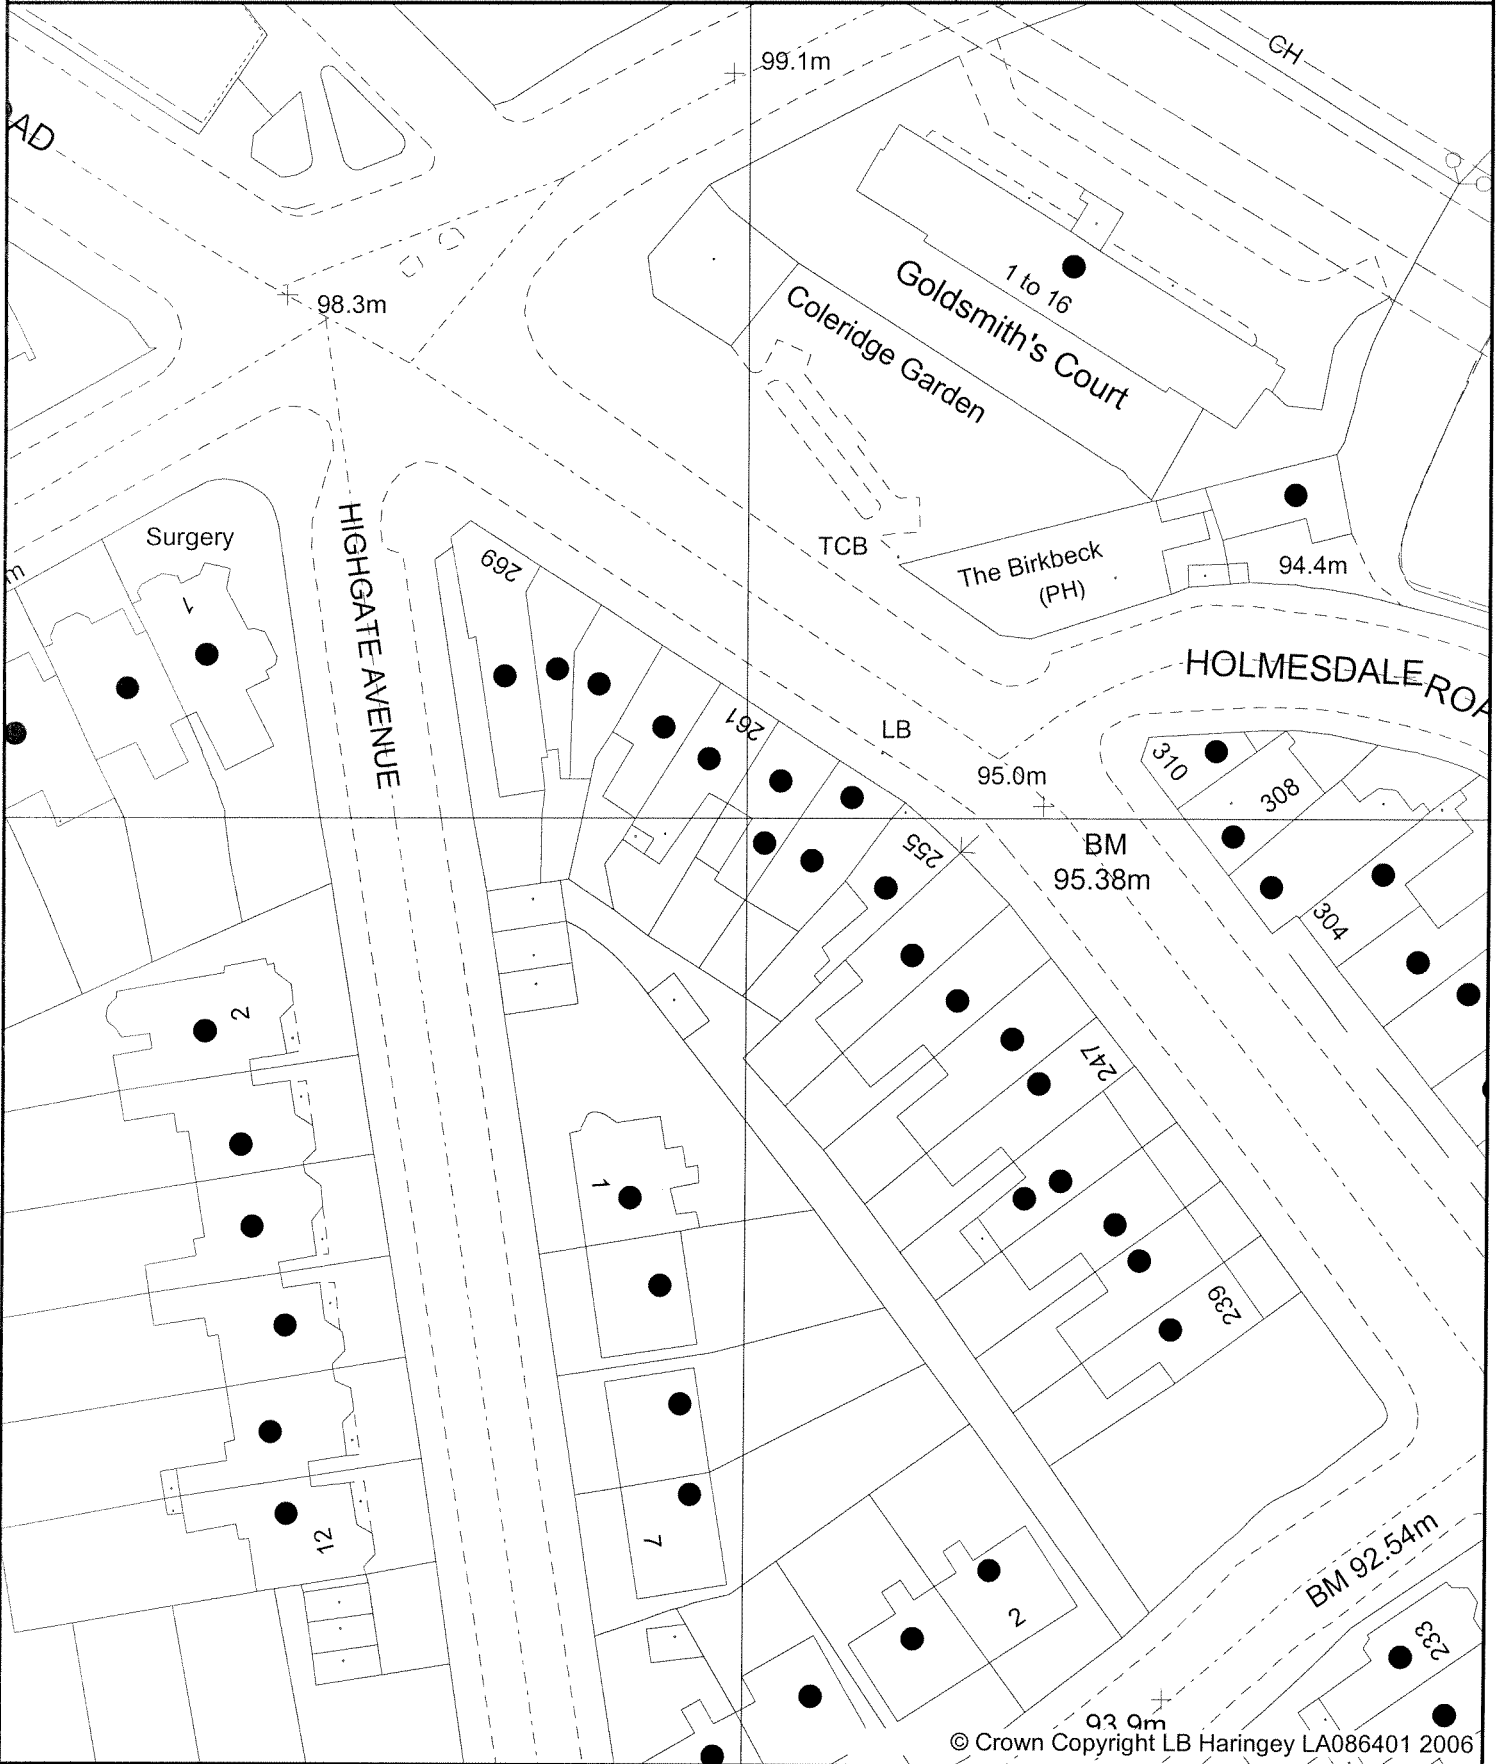

(e) Protection of children from harm

* Young people will be requested to show formal photo ID, passports or driving licences, to prove they are over 18 before they will be allowed to consume alcohol on the premises.

* Young persons will be served hot or cold non-alcoholic drinks from the café area only.

* Young persons who have shown formal photo ID to prove they are over 16 will be permitted to consume beer, wine or cider only, so long as they are eating a meal at table and when they are accompanied by an adult sitting with them who has purchased the alcohol on their behalf.

* Staff will regularly be reminded of this statutory duty of care towards minors and monitored to check they are routinely checking the ID of possible minors.
