Motion H (2007/8)

Councillor Davies has given notice that he will move in the following terms:

This Council notes that the Mayor's precept has increased three fold since 2000 when Mayor Livingstone came to office, and is costing residents of Haringey £188.19 more per year in 2008;

Regrets that London has imported the American-style of mayoral government without the robust checks and balances inherent in the American mayoral system;

And;

Resolves to call on the Government to devolve power from the Mayor to the Greater London Authority; and ensure proper systems of accountability for the Mayor's office so that profligate Mayors, such as Ken Livingstone, are held fully to account for their stewardship of Haringey residents' taxes.
