Hi Daliah,

Thank you for the email. I've not said to them that they can do weddings because of planning permission. I've said that the planning permission is valid to hold wedding parties etc.

I understand your email. In which case we will apply for TENs if they have wedding bookings.

I will call him now and speak to him...

> Hello Mahir,
To be clear , your client cannot offer wedding receptions if there is music and dancing taking place with a view to entertaining people in attendance at the venue.

You'll also need a licence if you provide the following types of entertainment:

- theatrical performance
- showing a film
- indoor sporting event
- boxing or wrestling (indoor or outdoor)
- live music
- recorded music
- dance
- facilities for making music
- dancing facilities

You still need a licence even if the activities are for charity

It matters not that there is no alcohol sale taking place.

I am concerned about what you have informed your client as they seem to believe that they can do weddings because their Planning permission allows them to do so. That is not the case and such activity is covered under the LA03.

Regards

With a view to achieving/discussing what exactly Mahir?
Mr Mandachi has shown that he has no intention of complying with the law and has gone out of his way to deny and obstruct both Police and the LA enforcement from entering the premises.
The director has sent emails claiming Mr Mandachi was no longer involved at the venue and this has now been proven to be misleading at best and untrustworthy.

All parties have been issued with a pre-warning letter to a potential Closure Order being applied for the premises.
The prosecution for unlicensed activity is being followed up also.

Good evening Daliah,

I would like to confirm that I've been instructed by Soffi & Co Ltd to take over the Premise Licence application which was submitted by Stewart Gibson. Please forward us all the future communications.

May I please ask for an meeting at the applicants' premises with you on Friday or next Monday? Could you also please let us know if a new committee meeting scheduled yet?

The premises will continue to host the events for the wedding parties up to 499 capacity. There will be no licensiable activities carried out such as sale of alcohol etc.

Turkish/Kurdish wedding parties very much similar to Romanian weddings are generally organised by the caterers who provides the food at the premises during the event. The alcohols are generally brought in by the family of groom or bride and offered for free to all guests. Catering companies are the responsible individuals for serving the drinks together with the meal. As there is no sale of alcohol there will be no licensiable activity.

The premises also used by holding events which requires a Premises Licence. I have advised the owners strictly not to hold any further events until a Premises Licence or TEN's in place.

I look forward to hear back from you soon.

Kind regards as always...
Mahir
