ALEXANDRA PARK AND PALACE CHARITABLE TRUST (APPCT)

Alexandra Park and Palace is a major heritage and cultural destination located in north London. It is a rare survivor of the great Victorian age of entrepreneurship, exhibition and spectacle. It is now known for its panoramic views of the city, diverse entertainment programme and as the birthplace of BBC Television in 1936, yet its history is broader, richer and deeper. The Palace is 7.5 acres in size and is surrounded by 196 acres of award winning parkland and together they receive over 3 million visits per year.

The Park and Palace exist for the enjoyment of the public forever and are held in trust by Haringey Council, which discharges its duty as Corporate Trustee of Alexandra Park and Palace to the members of the Alexandra Park and Palace Charitable Trust (APPCT) Board.

The Trust is responsible for the maintenance, restoration and repair of the Park and Palace for the enjoyment of the public and delivers an annual programme of works and activities to ensure the charitable purposes are achieved.

The Charity's trading subsidiary delivers events, entertainment and leisure activities on the premises all year round, from live music concerts to Health and Wellbeing exhibitions and generates essential income for the Charity, as well as bringing the site to life for a diverse audience.

The Trust has recently completed a £28m restoration programme of the Palace's East Wing, reopening after 80 years, a Victorian Theatre as a cultural performance space and refurbishing a grand Victorian exhibition hall as a public space to welcome visitors and encourage them into the Palace building. This is an exciting additional remit for the trading subsidiary.

The Charity generates nearly 50% of its income from trading and other income generating activities and receives an annual grant from its Corporate Trustee, Haringey Council. A 25 Year Strategic Vision has been developed to help the Charity to achieve its long-term aspiration towards greater financial sustainability.
