LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

The Premises Licence Holder will provide an Event Management Team consisting of competent staff who will liaise with the licensing authority, residents, and other stakeholders in advance of the event and will manage the live event operation with priority given to the promotion of the licensing objectives.

Specifically, this team will include personnel with responsibility for event safety, security, audience medical/welfare arrangements, site cleaning and noise control.

Details of the event arrangements, particularly in relation to the promotion of the licensing objectives will be documented in an Event Safety Management Plan which will be provided in advance to the Licensing Authority for circulation amongst relevant stakeholders for review and comment.

Members of the Event Management Team will engage in advance of the event with responsible authorities and other stakeholders as requested and will be available throughout the event as required.

The event will take place with a fenced perimeter to control access and manage event capacity. Access will be controlled via ticketing and accreditation and managed by SIA licensed security staff at entry and egress points.

Event Management staff and team members will be connected via handheld two-way radios to assist effective communications across the site.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

The Premises Licence Holder will take proactive and reactive measures to prevent crime and disorder, including, but not limited to;

Publicising in advance entry restrictions, crime reduction messages and advice on event security, medical and welfare arrangements.

Engaging in advance of the event with responsible authorities including Metropolitan Police Service on crime and disorder prevention matters.

Deploying an appropriate number of SIA licensed security staff throughout the site, provided by a competent crowd management/security company.

Directing their security provider to deploy staff to manage and monitor the audience in key locations including front of stage, bars, site entrance, emergency exits and circulation spaces.

Directing their security provider to deploy staff to operate and enforce entry procedures under the direction of the Premises Licence Holder including;

- restrictions on items that may be brought into the event,
- conducting bag and other proportionate and legitimate searches as a condition of entry to the date,
- exercising the right to refuse entry to any unauthorised/disorderly person.

Ensuring that bars staff have been fully briefed on the Challenge 25 policy in operation, are familiar with on reasons for refusal of service and understand how to seek assistance from bars management/security staff.

Ensuring that signage advising customers of the Challenge 25 policy is in operation is prominently displayed at each bar. Ensuring that no supply of alcohol shall take place at any bar unless a personal licence holder is present in a supervisory capacity.

c) Public safety

The Premises Licence Holder will take proactive measures to promote public safety, including, but not limited to;

Employment of an Event Safety Officer to oversee build, event and de-rig.

Provision of free drinking water supplies

Access to an appropriate number of toilets for public and workers throughout the event.

Protection of audience & staff from noise via volume control, exposure management and provision of ear plugs

Installation of a front of stage barrier to assist in crowd management.

Adoption of food hygiene standards and catering safety arrangements by food vendors

Provision of competent persons to install and operate generators and temporary power supplies.

Provision of competent persons to install and operate event infrastructure including temporary structures and sound equipment.

Monitoring of crowd movement and dynamics by competent persons with authority to take corrective measures if required.

Provision of fire precautions including the adequate numbers of emergency exits, appropriate levels of fire-fighting equipment and access for emergency vehicles including fire appliances

Production and dissemination of emergency arrangements including the provision of show stop procedures, evacuation plans and other contingency measures.

Provision of an on-site Medical/Welfare Team with trained and experienced staff available to care for ill, intoxicated, or vulnerable persons until they are ready to leave safely.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

The Premises Licence Holder will take proactive and reactive measures to prevent public nuisance, including, but not limited to;

Providing pre-event information to local businesses and residents including details of the event and contact information for the Event Management Team.

Engaging with local businesses and residents on maintaining access to premises and mitigating any potential disruption.

Providing an event 'hotline' so local businesses and residents may contact the Event Management Team during the event.

Providing sound engineers to monitor sound levels on and off site, and take corrective action as required.

Providing on site waste bins and litter pickers. Arranging for post event cleaning of the event site and surrounding areas.

Directing security staff to ensure customers do not leave the event with food/drinks and use the litter bins provided.

Advising customers to leave the event and surrounding area quickly and quietly, whilst behaving respectfully.

Not undertaking any flyposting or post-event leafleting in connection with the event.

e) The protection of children from harm

The event is advertised for over 18's, and is programmed to appeal to an audience of 25+ year olds.

The event is contained within a fenced perimeter with access through a security staff controlled entry point.

ID checks will place on entry, and at bars as required. Persons without satisfactory identification will be refused entry or service of alcohol. In the event that underage persons are identified at the Premises, medical/welfare staff will conduct safeguarding checks to establish arrangements for their removal from the venue.
