All staff will be given refresher training every twelve months on the legislation relating to the sales of alcohol to underage persons and drunken persons.

PUBLIC SAFETY

Proper temperature control and secure storage to prevent access by unauthorized persons or minors. Alcohol's capacities will be carefully monitored and managed. Staff will be trained in the use of fire extinguishers.

The vessel must be permanently moored by obtaining permission from Canal River Trust.co.uk and operating within UK inland waterways.

THE PREVENTION OF PUBLIC NUISANCE

The volume of the music audibles at the perimeter of the premises to be at the conversation level.

Premises will not sell alcohol to those who are already intoxicated.

The alcohol sold for consumption off the premises to be in sealed in containers not consumed on the boat/vessel. A member of staff shall ensure the area immediately outside the premises is free from groups gathering to drink alcohol, from litter, including cigarette butts/packets etc, periodically throughout the premises opening hours and specifically at the end of trading hours.

A sign will be placed at the entrance requesting all customers to be aware of sale of alcohol off the premises only.

No customers shall be allowed to stand and consume alcohol on the public towpath or the green area right in front of the premises and no tables or chairs will be permitted to be set up on the green area. Furthermore, it was brought to police's attention by Area Operations Manager, East – Mr Howard Clark from Canal & River Trust that any use of the towpath for commercial purposes, such as placing tables and chairs on Trust land, is wholly inappropriate. The towpath is a heavily trafficked public right of way, and such obstructions present a clear and unacceptable trip hazard to pedestrians and cyclists.

A written record of refused sales shall be kept on the premises and completed when necessary. This record shall be made available to Police and/or the Local Authority upon request and shall be kept for at least one year from the date of the last entry.

If agreed by the applicant, we would withdraw our representations contingent upon that agreement. I reserve the right to provide further information to support this representation.

Regards,

PC Costache 1404NA
