Circumstances / Actions - Provide details of the incident in a clear format - Who, What, When, Where, Why - for passing to Ward officers.		1. IMMEDIATE ACTION: NA44L 1586NA/3456NA in attendance regarding CAD 5630 of 05/07/2025 which refers to a group of travellers climbing up a ladder trying to get onto someones balcony. Upon attendance group of

	approximately ten (10) intoxicated travellers one of which only had one shoe on. Group had been in NORTH EIGHT TAVERN and had been drinking and when had been loitering outside others in the group thought that it was funny to take a shoe of another traveller and throw it upwards and causing it to land on balcony of [REDACTED] which is next to the pub. Group threw the other males shoe onto a nearby shed roof but male had retrieved one of his shoes before Police attendance. Group of males had been cheering on male with one shoe who had found a nearby ladder and had been in process of climbing up and trying to retrieve his shoe from the balcony of [REDACTED] which is on first floor. Resident of this flat had been telling him to go away from her flat and police had been called as others in group had also been ringing the buzzer to her flat trying to get through communal flat door to retrieve the shoe. Upon Police attendance , Police gained entry to communal flat door and shoe had been thrown down stairs to the ground floor hallway. Police handed shoe back to male with one shoe and group gradually dispersed. Female resident of [REDACTED] is very angry with repeated instances of rowdy and anti social behaviour caused by persons coming out of NORTH EIGHT TAVERN which is at junction of HIGH STREET N8 and ST MARYS ROAD. Another resident from [REDACTED] also reported frequent anti social drinking related behaviour by patrons of NORTH EIGHT TAVERN. None of residents targeted personally but rowdy behaviour is affecting residents in block of flats by noise causing sleep issues. Residents have complained to Landlord of pub but stated that behaviour ongoing. Residents are questioning if NORTH EIGHT TAVERN licence can be reviewed.

Details
I want to be clear: I understand that living next to a pub comes with a certain level of noise. But this is far beyond what is reasonable or acceptable. The behaviour of the patrons, the lack of responsible management, and the indifference shown by the pub owner have made this an intolerable living situation. When I raised these incidents with the pub owner directly- including providing photo and video evidence of the balcony trespass, the only response I received from the owner was a request to return the man's shoe. There was no concern expressed, no apology, and no action taken to prevent future incidents. This further demonstrates that the pub owner is either unwilling or unable to manage his patrons responsibly. His ongoing disregard for the safety and wellbeing of neighboring residents, coupled with a failure to address violent and antisocial behaviour, suggests a clear prioritisation of profit over public safety - and raises serious questions about his fitness to operate a licensed establishment. PC McGOWAN then provided the link to upload CCTV. We will follow up further when practicable.

PC McGOWAN 2056NA emailed [REDACTED] as part as initial contact to informant on Friday, July 11, 2025 at 1024hrs. [REDACTED] replied on the 14JUL25 at 0847hrs and then PC McGOWAN and [REDACTED] shared back and forth correspondence via email in which [REDACTED] explained the ongoing issue . * [REDACTED] EMAIL TO PC McGOWAN* Duration: The disruptive behaviour has been ongoing for over a year. More frequent and increasingly severe in recent months. Recurring Individuals: The behaviour is consistent - typically involving groups of intoxicated men who are loud, aggressive and disruptive. Times of Disturbance: It often begins in the late evenings on the weekends and Fridays and continues into the early hours of the morning - frequently as late as 3am or 4am, even on weeknights. During these times, there appears to be no security presence or management intervention. Some of the examples of the behaviour I've experienced include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. A bottle was thrown a by one of the patrons. This took place on Sunday 27 April 03:00 am - 03:30am.</li> <li>2. Verbal abuse and shouting directed at from the street.</li> <li>3. Most recently and most distressingly, a man climbed onto my private balcony after deliberately throwing his shoe there. Despite me asking him to leave, he refused. This was a clear act of trespassing and an invasion of my personal space and safety. This took place on Saturday 5 July 2025 between 16:50 pm - 17:06 pm.</li> </ol>		Staff 01 C747557 Khatun	19/07/2025 17:23

As a woman living alone, the impact of these incidents has been deeply unsettling. Beyond the physical trespass, the psychological toll has been significant - affecting my sense of safety, my sleep, and my mental wellbeing. works early mornings and a demanding schedule. The lack of sleep and constant stress have disrupted my routine and compromised my ability to function effectively in both personal and professional spheres.
