North Eight, 26 High Street, London, N8 7PB Review further evidence.

Police are requesting the following information be added to our supporting representations in regard to the review for the North Eight Pub. The Police Licensing team have considered the further evidence, and feel it is important that the licensing authority have all the relevant information presented to them and as up to date as possible.

Since FRIDAY 4TH JULY 2025 to WEDNESDAY 30TH JULY 2025 there have been approximately 16 calls made to police. These calls range between the times 16.10 hours to 03.30 hours. The CADs are shown in date order. This shows since the last hearing on the 17th July 2025 that calls to Police have continued to be reported of a similar nature i.e. fighting in the street and that the premises are continuing to attract this behavior and allow patrons to continue drinking at their premises.

Whilst Police acknowledge that 15 calls are from residents and there is no confirmed crime that has taken place this does not devalue the fact that Police have been called to the premises. One call from the premises itself from security stating they can't manage the people inside the pub has resulted in a confirmed crime allegation, but the owner did not want to substantiate the offence by making a statement and therefore the suspect male was then de-arrested and not prosecuted. This highlights the issue perfectly as the premises are not able to manage their own premises and require Police to do so.
