Dear Licensing,

Regrettably, police are going to object this LATE TEN as we cannot impose conditions. There is no mention of SIAs or no mention of how they are going to uphold the licensing objectives.

Kind regards,

Adriana Costache

Subject: RE: TENS- La PLaza de Yirda 28 to 30-08-26

Dear Licensing Team.

Late Temporary Event Notice – La Plaza De Yirda, 487 Seven Sisters Road (Ref: haringey-1792138)

Please accept this email as a formal Objection regarding the above Late Temporary Event Notice (Late TEN)

This objection is made under the Prevention of Public Nuisance licensing objective for the following reasons:

The applicant is requesting terminal hours of 03:00 AM across three consecutive nights (Friday to Sunday) over a Bank Holiday weekend. The premises are situated in a commercial parade with residential accommodation directly above and surrounding the building. Regulated entertainment and customer dispersal until 03:00 AM present a significant risk of severe noise disturbance and sleep disruption to nearby residents.

The notice provides no specific noise management plan or details regarding security staff that will be used.

Accordingly, the Noise Nuisance and Licensing Team has no option but to formally object to this Late Temporary Event Notice.

Regards,

David Wood

Noise Nuisance and Licensing Officer
