

4. REPORT

Background

A premises licence was originally granted to Viva Viva Catering Ltd in November 2005 to allow Provision of Regulated Entertainment, Provision of Late Night Refreshment and Supply of Alcohol until 1am Monday to Wednesday, until 2am Friday and Saturday and until midnight on Sunday. In June 2008 it came to the attention of the Licensing Team that this company had been dissolved in November 2006, making the licence null and void. A new Premises Licence application was then applied for in June 2008 by Evie Demosthenous and Viva Crouch End Limited. This went forward to Committee Hearing and was subsequently granted in August 2008 to allow Provision of Regulated Entertainment, Provision of Late Night Refreshment and Supply of Alcohol until midnight Monday to Wednesday, until 1am Thursday to Saturday and until 2330 on Sunday. The licence was then transferred in November 2008 to Andrew Matthews and Stephen Salinger, directors of Assetainment Ltd. The licence was again transferred in November 2009 to Kelko Limited and Mr Aaron Gaughan. In March 2011 the licence was transferred once more, this time to a Hardeep Dhanoa.

“On Saturday 12th March 2011 at around 00:50 Police attended Kelco 18 High Street Hornsey N8 with the London Borough of Haringey noise enforcement team in response to several calls from local residents regarding excessive noise coming from the establishment. On arrival a large number of youths were on the footway outside the premises, some were consuming alcohol direct from spirit bottles and police noticed a very strong smell of cannabis. The noise from the sound system was deafening and when they entered the premises once again cannabis was evident. No doormen were on duty. The premises was packed. Police located the designated premises supervisor, a Hardeep DHANOA who admitted that the situation was out of hand. Police noticed that a fire exit door was locked. Some of the clientele were probably under age and DHANOA method of age ID was a tattoo. When Police left the premises the numbers outside had increased to around 200 and fights had broken out and glasses and bottles were being thrown. Members of rival gangs on the Borough were identified. Urgent Police assistance was called for. Outbreaks of violence continued for a further two hours and during this time Police used CS gas and shields to protect themselves.”

There is also footage of the incident taken from the CCTV cameras in the area.
