There are three types of conditions which may be attached to a Premises Licence.

- Mandatory (S167)
- Default (S168)
- Discretionary, set by the Licensing Authority (S169)

Mandatory and default conditions are prescribed in the Gambling Act 2005 Regulations for each premises type. Conditions attached by the Licensing Authority may not;

Conflict with Gambling Commission requirements (S169)

Require memberships (S170)

Limit stakes or prizes (S171)

Restrict machines numbers (S172)

The Conditions Regulations stipulate the mandatory and default conditions every Premises License will have the following conditions:

Mandatory conditions attaching to every premises license

(1) The conditions specified in paragraphs (2), (3) and (4) shall be attached to every premises license.

(2) The summary of the terms and conditions of the premises license issued under section

164(1)(c) of the 2005 Act shall be displayed in a prominent place within the premises.

(3) The layout of the premises shall be maintained in accordance with the plan.

(4) The premises shall not be used for—

(a) the sale of tickets in a private lottery or customer lottery, or

(b) the sale of tickets in any other lottery in respect of which the sale of tickets on the premises is otherwise prohibited.

Mandatory conditions attaching to betting premises licenses

1. A notice stating that no person under the age of 18 years is permitted to enter the premises shall be displayed in a prominent place at every entrance to the premises.

2.—(1) Access to the premises shall be from a street or from other premises with a betting premises license.

(2) Without prejudice to sub-paragraph (1), there shall be no means of direct access between the premises and other premises used for the retail sale of merchandise or services.

3. Subject to anything permitted by virtue of the 2005 Act, or done in accordance with paragraphs 4, 5, 6 and 7 below, the premises shall not be used for any purpose other than for providing facilities for betting.

4. Any ATM made available for use on the premises shall be located in a place that requires any customer who wishes to use it to leave any gaming machine or betting machine in order to do so.

5. No apparatus for making information or other material available in the form of sounds or visual images may be used on the premises, except for apparatus used for the following purposes—

(a) communicating information about, or coverage of, sporting events, including—

(i) information relating to betting on such an event; and

(ii) any other matter or information, including an advertisement, which is incidental to such an event;

(b) communicating information relating to betting on any event (including the result of the event) in connection with which betting transactions may be or have been effected on the premises.

6. No publications, other than racing periodicals or specialist betting publications, may be sold or offered for sale on the premises.

7. No music, dancing or other entertainment shall be provided or permitted on the premises, save for entertainment provided in accordance with paragraph 5.

8.—(1) No alcohol shall be permitted to be consumed on the premises at any time during which facilities for gambling are being provided on the premises.

(2) A notice stating the condition in sub-paragraph (1) shall be displayed in a prominent place at every entrance to the premises.

9. A notice setting out the terms on which customers are invited to bet on the premises shall be displayed in a prominent place on the premises to which customers have unrestricted access.

Section 183 Christmas Day

A premises licence shall, by virtue of this section, be subject to the condition that the premises shall not be used to provide facilities for gambling on Christmas Day.

Section 184 Annual Fee

(1) The holder of a premises licence-

- a. Shall pay a first annual fee to the licensing authority within such period after the issue of the licence as may be prescribed, and
- b. Shall pay an annual fee to the licensing authority before each anniversary of the issue of the licence.

Section 185 Availability of licence

(1) The holder of a premises licence shall-

- a. Keep the licence on the premises, and
- b. Arrange for the licence to be made available on request to-
 - i. A constable
 - ii. An enforcement officer, or
 - iii. An authorised local authority officer

The Default conditions to be attached to any premises license unless they are excluded by the Licensing Authority, these are:

Default conditions attaching to betting premises licenses (other than in respect of tracks)

- No facilities for gambling shall be provided on the premises between the hours of 10pm on one day and 7am on the next day.

Section 169 of the Act gives licensing authorities:

- The ability to exclude from premises licenses any default conditions that have been imposed under section 168; and
- The power to impose conditions on the premises licenses that they issue.

Door Supervisors.

This is not a mandatory requirement.

Section 178 Door Supervision

- (1) Where a condition for door supervision is attached to a premises licence (whether by virtue of section 167, 168 or 169) subsection (3) shall apply in relation to the licence.
- (2) In subsection (1) "condition for door supervision" means a condition requiring that one or more persons be responsible for guarding the premises against unauthorised access or occupation, against outbreaks or disorder or against damage.
- (3) If the person carrying out the guarding mentioned in subsection (2) is required by the Private Security Industry Act 2001 (c. 12) to hold a licence under that Act authorising the guarding, the requirements under that Act shall be treated for the purpose of this Act as if it were a condition of the premises licence attached by virtue of this section.
