

This report is based on 2011/12 CIN census returns. It shows that Haringey are in the middle range for the initiation of sec 47 Investigations. The number of sec 47s is compared to the rate per 10,000 children to allow for differing sizes of children population in statistically similar authorities. The information evidences that Haringey do not initiate significantly more of less section 47 Investigations.

