

The Criminal Justice and Immigration Act – Legal Aid Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act

Sentencing options

Pre Court	Youth Rehabilitation Order (YRO)- arrest, charge and court appearance. YRO has a number of requirements which can be proposed in Pre- sentence reports written by YOS staff to assist sentencers.		Custody – arrest, charge and court appearance for serious offences/persistent offenders
Triage – arrest but no charge- diversion from criminal justice system so no convictions	Activity Requirement	Exclusion Requirement	Detention & Training Order
From 01.04.2013 Youth Caution/Youth Conditional Caution – arrest and charge but no court appearance - can be used on multiple occasions	Supervision Requirement	Education Requirement	S91 – serious offence
First Tier – arrest, charge and court appearance	Curfew Requirement	Prohibited Activity Requirement	S228 – extended sentence/public protection
Absolute Discharge	Programme Requirement	Electronic Monitoring Requirement	S226 – indeterminate/public protection
Conditional Discharge	Residence Requirement (16/17 yr olds only)	Drug Testing Requirement	S90 – mandatory life/Murder
Compensation Order	Mental Health Treatment Requirement	Drug Treatment Requirement
Fine	Attendance Centre Requirement	LA Residence Requirement
Referral Order- generally imposed at first court appearance stage	Intensive Supervision and Surveillance Requirement/ Intensive Fostering Requirement- alternatives to custody	Unpaid Work Requirement (16/17 yr olds only)
Reparation Order		Intoxicating substance treatment requirement
Sentence Deferred	➤ YRO can be used by courts on multiple occasions
	➤ YRO cannot exceed 3 years
	➤ Parenting Orders also available		