

Haringey Council

Appendix 1

Tottenham Regeneration Programme Key Achievements (since February 2012)

February 2012

- Cabinet approves £41m funding and investment package to kick start the regeneration of Tottenham (Council and GLA funding)
- Tottenham Hotspur FC £430m stadium development given planning approval by the council – club commits to staying in the area
- HRH Prince of Wales and HRH Duchess of Cornwall visit Tottenham High Road

March 2012

- Council and Homes for Haringey begin engaging with Love Lane estate residents about their priorities for improvement
- Launch of '12 in 2012' pledges for Tottenham

April 2012

- Job Centre Plus reopened

May 2012

- Carpetright planning permission approved by the Council
- Tottenham Town Centre Growth Manager appointed
- Tottenham Green regeneration stakeholder group first meeting
- Arup commissioned to produce Tottenham Investment and Development Framework and High Road West master plan options
- Jobs for Haringey programme launched

June 2012

- Seven Sisters Regeneration Project (Wards Corner site) given planning permission – 196 homes and 40,000 sq ft of retail space
- Tottenham Green stakeholder & public workshops held to inform proposals for £1.5m investment in The Green, facilitated by the Prince's Foundation for Building Communities
- Summer on the Green, part of the London Festival of Architecture, held on Tottenham Green East
- Council and Homes for Haringey support the relaunch of the Love Lane Residents Association

July 2012

- First Bruce Grove regeneration stakeholder group meeting – informing proposals for £850k of public realm and market improvements
- 639b opened as community enterprise space by GLA

Haringey Council
August 2012

- A Plan for Tottenham published
- Work starts to rebuild Carpetright building
- Summer events take place, including the PARAdé festival held at Tottenham Green Leisure Centre, part of cultural programme for Tottenham 2012 and the Cultural Olympiad
- Architects, Adams & Sutherland, appointed to design Growth on the High Road schemes
- 'Cruyff Court' multi use games area opened in Ferry Lane

September 2012

- Construction works begin on Phase 1 of Tottenham Hotspur FC development
- Project Tottenham community film festival takes place, part of the cultural programme for Tottenham in 2012
- Tottenham Medley Market takes place on Tottenham Green East, delivered by councils 20;5 leadership programme

October 2012

- Invest Haringey event held showcasing key sites and development opportunities
- Public consultation on Bruce Grove public realm projects begins

November 2012

- Aldi reopens on the High Road
- Transport for London (TfL) agree to invest £20m in new 'gateway station' at Tottenham Hale
- £41m Tottenham gyratory works start
- Public consultation on Tottenham Green regeneration designs

December 2012

- Tottenham Christmas events held– a winter market, music festival and the switching on of the Christmas tree lights at Tottenham Green
- £10k 'Town Team' funding awarded

January 2013

- Tottenham High Street Charter launched
- Planning permission for 285 new homes approved for Lawrence Road

February 2013

- £50m investment in new primary school and 222 homes given planning permission at Brook House
- TfL confirm £20m investment in new 'gateway' station at Tottenham

Haringey Council
March 2013

- Initial funding awarded by Heritage Lottery Fund for High Road restoration project in north Tottenham
- THFC and Middlesex University announce University Technical College for north Tottenham

April 2013

- Consultation begins on the High Road West master plan options
- Bruce Grove Week of Action delivered with the council, Met police, London Fire Brigade, community groups and local traders

May 2013

- 639 High Road opens as a business and enterprise centre
- 'From Around Here exhibition & shop' opens at 639 High Road, running for 6 weeks
- Revamped towpath opened on River Lee between Tottenham and Stonebridge Locks
- Mayor of London confirms £25m funding to deliver four trains per hour between Enfield, Northumberland Park and Tottenham Hale
- Consultation begins on the West Green Road Street Scene Improvements project

June 2013

- The Government announces an agreed £ 500 million borrowing guarantee for the Tottenham regeneration programme, to support the delivery of new high quality homes and jobs as well as better transport links, leisure facilities and business workspace. The announcement also includes agreement to TfL taking over management of the West Anglia train routes through Tottenham, as well as £90 million electrification of the London Overground line through South Tottenham Station.