

Appendix B –

1.0 The existing ESP scheme

1.1 There are currently four categories of ESPs and the qualifying criteria are highlighted below;

Building Maintenance

- Those involved in building maintenance, whether or not it applies to private or public sector housing / buildings.

Other

- Those involved in the delivery of essential services to residents and require as part of their job to carry heavy [or hazardous] equipment or materials.
- Those involved in the delivery of essential services to residents who are required to work extended unsociable hours or are on 24-hour call out.

This category of user includes those involved in the delivery of Health and Social Care services.*

Schools

- Schools are considered on an individual business case basis. The factors that are be considered are operational needs, availability of car park space at the school or in the immediate area, and proximity to public transport facilities. If an application is accepted permits are issued to a named member of staff, for term time only and they may only be used a roads immediately around the school.

Ministers of Religion

- Ministers of religion qualify for a permit as there is a need for them to attend residents in their own homes.
