5. Background information

Provision exists in the Council Constitution for the Cabinet to establish advisory or consultative bodies the membership of which is not limited to Cabinet Members. The Joint Area Review report into Haringey's Children Services in 2009 identified the need to improve governance of safeguarding arrangements for children. The

Haringey Council

Children's Safeguarding Policy and Practice Committee and Corporate Parenting committee were established in July 2009 in response to this and they have continued to be re-established by the Cabinet since this date.

Most council do have a Corporate Parenting Committee as they provide an overview of the Council's role as corporate parent for children and young people who are in care. It is responsible for ensuring that the life chances of children in care are maximized in terms of health, educational attainment and access to training and employment, in order to aid the transition to a secure and fulfilling adulthood.

In April 2012 the Governance review delivery group considered decommissioning the Corporate Parenting Advisory Committee and they proposed a scrutiny panel on Children's Services take on its functions and responsibilities. However following further study in May the group felt that as the scrutiny panels were not prescribed at this stage, and given the importance of fulfilling the Council's role as corporate parent to children in care, they recommended that this Committee continued in 2012/13. The Committee could then be reviewed once the scrutiny panels were more firmly established.

Subsequent to this direction by the Governance Delivery Group, the Cabinet formally established the Corporate Parenting Advisory Committee at their meeting on the 12 June 2012 with the following membership and terms of reference
