STCO32.	STANDARDS BOARD FOR ENGLAND BULLETIN The Committee received the most recent bulletin from the Standards Board for England. Members noted the proposed future increase in the rôle of the Standards Committee, with the Committee due to be the first port of call for complaints made against Councillors. Members debated whether this was a function for the full committee or for possibly ad hoc sub-committees, and promised to look at the issue in detail when the specifics became clearer. RESOLVED: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. STCO33.	CONSULTATION PAPER ON AMENDMENTS TO THE MODEL CODE OF CONDUCT FOR COUNCILLORS The committee receive this consultation paper providing details on the proposed changes to the Code of Conduct for Councillors. The report also informed Members of the recommended responses to the Government's consultation on the proposed changes. The Monitoring Officer summarised proposed key changes to the Code of Conduct, including deleting the duty for Councillors to report each other to the Standards Board, and creating a third interest category of 'public service' interest. Further changes surrounded the category of 'prejudicial interest'; Members would now be able to make representations in meetings should they declare their interest. They would, however, have to withdraw before the decision itself was made.

	Members were informed that ‘bullying’ was now specifically mentioned in the Code, although no precise definition was given. Members noted that the code stated that it was obligatory for Councillors to receive and consider advice, although there was no obligation for this to be acted on. The model proposed that confidential information could be disclosed where it was in the public interest to do so. It was noted that the public interest test was defined in the Freedom of Information Act. Members noted what was perceived as the vague nature of the obligation to declare a ‘close personal association’ as an interest. It was also noted that Member misbehaviour in a private capacity was now to be part of the new Code. Members further noted that it was hoped that the new code would be brought in for the new municipal year, with all Councillors being trained on it. RESOLVED: 1. That the Committee adopt the response to the Model Code as recommended to the Committee.
STCO34.	REGISTER OF GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY The Register of Gifts and Hospitality continued to be available on the Council’s website at: http://www.haringey.gov.uk/index/council/how_the_council_works/standardscommittee/registerofinterests.htm
