This was an increase on the original submission to the HLF, and allowed for an increase of building cost inflation to 11%. This had been discussed with the HLF, who had experienced this with a number of other project submissions.• The increase in the design fee was partly due to the procurement of the architects, and also allowed for an increase in the cost of investigative surveys.• A consultation exercise would need to be carried out as part of the planning application at the end of the year, but it was anticipated that this would begin sooner rather than later to ensure a full consultation. Details of who would be targeted were shown at appendix two of the report. There would be drawings and plans available, Area Forums and local organisations would be targeted, and consultation exercise carried out in the town centres. All information would be available on the Alexandra Palace website. Fundraising / sponsorship <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Bob Kidby had agreed to help with identifying suitable people / companies to approach for fundraising or sponsorship. Other events were being booked in order to fill the gap, but the market was competitive.• Further information on the fireworks would be available at the July meeting. Learning, Community and Volunteering <ul style="list-style-type: none">• A major project had been undertaken in the Transmitter Hall to

APBO359.	REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF REGENERATION AND PROPERTY Duncan Wilson – Chief Executive, Alexandra Palace – introduced the report as set out. NOTED <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A timetable of works was set out at paragraph 7.8 of the report. A in-depth survey had been carried out on the fabric of the Palace, and a 10 year plan had been produced. The full cost of the recommended conservation works programme to the building and its plant was £45m. The HLF project would cover up to £15m of this. Dog control order <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Parks Manager had fed into the consultation carried out by Haringey Council, but the proposals had not been taken up. Since then, the Council had re-engaged with the Park and agreed that some of the proposals could be implemented subject to satisfactory enforcement arrangements.
