

Scrutiny Review – Reducing Youth Reoffending

Questions for the meeting on 10 October 2005 @ 19:00 Civic Centre
Wood Green London N22

Community and Police Consultative Group

1. Tell us about the work of Haringey CPC and also your role within it?
2. How representative is the CPC and what measures are in place to make it representative of the community?
3. Are there any sections of the community who you feel are under-represented?

Youth Panel

4. How have you attracted participation in the Youth Panel? How have you measured its representativeness?
5. What are emerging as the key themes of interest for the Youth Panel in your monthly steering committee meetings?
6. How do you propose to adopt action plans for concerns that emerge at the Youth Forum meetings? How does that work now?
7. What do you think are the gaps in the Council's provision for dealing with young offenders?
8. Are you confident that the Council is making progress on reducing the number of offenders and re-offenders? How do you think it could improve its performance?
9. What role do you envisage for the Youth Forum to develop strategies for reducing re-offending by young people?
10. In particular, how will you incorporate ideas that emerge into mainstream council policy?
11. What criteria do you use to measure the effectiveness of the Youth Panel?
12. To what extent have you used the best practice in other boroughs to inform your own processes and procedures?
13. How will the Youth Panel relate to the Crime Disorder Reduction Partnership?