

London Community Rehabilitation Company

Update on Transforming Rehabilitation changes

February 2015

London
Community Rehabilitation Company

Government Reform Rationale

- Need to reduce reoffending rates
- Investment and new ways of working required to fund a rehabilitation requirement for all those sentenced to under 12 months custody
- Greater flexibility to do what works
- Provide greater diversity of providers
- Market forces drive right behaviours if rewards are based on successful outcomes

Probation Delivery Model introduced on 1 June 2014

Competition for the CRCs

- The procurement process was run by the Ministry of Justice.
- Contracts were signed in December 2014.
- Service transition began in February 2015.

New London provider: MTCnovo

- On February 1 2015, the transfer of ownership of the London Community Rehabilitation Company, to MTCnovo was completed.
- MTCnovo is a new venture between the third, public and private sector, which has been established to provide rehabilitation services across London and Thames Valley from February 2015.

New London provider: MTCnovo

MTCnovo is a joint venture involving:

- MTC (Management Training Corporation) – a private company
- novo – a consortium with public, private and third sector shareholders including:
  - RISE – a probation staff community interest company
  - A Band of Brothers – a charity
  - The Manchester College – a public sector education provider
  - Thames Valley Partnership – a charity
  - Amey – a private company.

www.mtcnovo.co.uk

Community Rehabilitation Companies (CRCs)

- London is the largest of the 21 CRCs
- In London, approximately 25,000 cases
- Management of all medium risk and low risk cases excluding MAPPA both in community and custody
- Prison resettlement contracts to enable 'through the gate' services

Community Rehabilitation Companies (CRCs)

- All accredited programmes excluding sex offender programmes
  - Senior Attendance Centres
  - Integrated Offender Management
  - Mentoring
  - Restorative Justice
  - Community Payback
- 