

Part Three, Section D

Responsibility for functions: Local Choice Functions

Local Choice Functions

All functions of the Council are “executive”, and the responsibility of the Executive (the Leader, individual Cabinet members and the Cabinet), unless in law they are prevented from being exercised by the Executive. The Local Authorities (Functions and Responsibilities) (England) Regulations 2000 (as amended) set out which functions are “non-executive” and which cannot in law be the responsibility of the Executive.

In addition, there are a few “Local Choice” functions set out in Regulations where the local authority is free to choose in its constitution whether the function is, basically, “executive” or “non-executive”. The Leader may delegate or allocate any executive functions to an individual Cabinet member, the Cabinet, a Committee of the Cabinet or an officer and the Council may delegate any of the “non-executive” functions to a Committee, Sub-Committee or an officer. The list below shows where these “Local Choice” functions are allocated in this Constitution and the body or person expected to exercise the delegated decision-making powers. In the event that a Member body or an officer post has its name changed, the allocation/delegation in the list below will continue in force provided that there is no material change to the terms of reference of the body or the responsibilities of the post
